April Aguilar Named New Education Director at Families Forward Learning Center

PASADENA – September 25, 2020 - Families Forward Learning Center is pleased to announce April Aguilar as its new education director. Aguilar has worked in early childhood education for 20 years as an education coordinator, teacher, and coach, and holds a masters in early childhood education from Pacific Oaks College. She was most recently employed at Orange County Department of Education, working as a project liaison for its quality and improvement program.

Aguilar is also a professor at Rio Hondo College in behavioral social sciences. "April was attracted to our two-generation learning approach to serving our families", says Elva Sandoval, executive director. "We are pleased to have her join our team."

"Becoming the education director is my dream job," said Aguilar. "I am looking forward to bringing my enthusiasm and experience to the dedicated team of teachers at Families Forward."

Families Forward Learning Center's mission is to prepare families living in isolation and poverty to succeed in school and in life. Families Forward has provided free education and social services to low-income families in Pasadena and Altadena for nearly 60 years
